MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The International Reptile Conservation Foundation works to conserve reptiles and the natural habitats and ecosystems that support them.

- Engaging in active conservation of reptiles and their habitats
• Promoting educational efforts related to the conservation of biodiversity
• Building connections between individuals and the academic, zoo, and conservation communities
• Disseminating and exchanging information on the ecology, behavior, husbandry, taxonomy, and evolution of reptiles

By joining the IRCF you help support our mission and ongoing efforts to help save some of the world's most endangered reptiles and amphibians.

Membership includes four quarterly issues of the IRCF journal, Reptiles & Amphibians, Conservation and Natural History, now published in full color. Each issue provides selected feature articles on reptile and amphibian conservation and husbandry, species profiles, travelogues, commentaries on topics important to conservation, profiles of prominent herpetologists and conservationists, historical perspectives, book reviews, and newsbriefs.

Membership is open to everyone, and can be given as a gift. To join, simply check the type of membership, fill in the information below, enclose your check payable to the IRCF, and mail to: PO Box 90270 Tucson, AZ 85745 If you want to extend your membership for two or three years, just include the additional amount in your payment.

Membership is also available online at: www.IRCF.org
